AT BARN斯LEY RESORT

World-Class Resort Offers Convenient Meeting Space, Luxury Accommodations, and Adventurous Group Activities

ADAIRSVILLE, GA – With luxurious accommodations housed in distinctive cottages, a number of meeting spaces that can accommodate groups of all sizes, and outside-of-the-box team-building activities, Barnsley Resort, located on 3,300 acres in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains of Georgia, can create a one-of-a-kind meeting. In addition to a unique venue that encourages productivity and relaxation, special packages enable groups to host events at a reasonable price.

Barnsley Resort's 2,457 square foot Pavilion was renovated in early 2011, enabling it to accommodate more guests for an event. The interior was expanded and a large, covered terrace was added, encouraging groups to move outdoors. In addition to the newly updated venue, groups also have access to the Town Hall, a 1440 square foot venue that can host up to 120 people; two-executive board rooms, and outdoor venues that include The Beer Garden, perfect for an evening social; and The Ruins, the property's historic manor house that is ideal for evening events under the stars.

Group retreats are all about bonding, and Barnsley Resort can work with planners to create a memorable event that will bring teams closer together. Groups looking for a day filled with adventure can opt to participate in one of Barnsley's Day Outings. The Ridin' & Rodeoin' Package is perfect for 8 to 30 participants and includes real-life rodeo skills and games on horseback led by the resort's very own Cowboy. For a fast-paced team game, the Paintball Package features refereed paintball at the Wolf Cave Mountain Field, a boxed lunch and beverages for 10-30 people.

Barnsley Resort's award-winning amenities are perfect for a number of team-building activities. Groups can sign up for a special clay-shooting class at Springbank Plantation, the resort's on-site hunting preserve. Frisbee Golf, scavenger hunts, and orienteering bring team members closer together by having them work together to reach success. The conference coordinator can even work with groups to create friendly competition by arranging a "Barnsley Olympics" or a lawn game challenge.

When groups have down time, there are plenty of ways to relax or pass an afternoon. A state-of-the-art spa helps visitors de-stress with 10 treatment rooms; ladies' and gentlemen's lounges, saunas and steam rooms; a co-ed whirlpool; and a number of treatments that include facials, massages, wraps, manicures and pedicures. Additionally the resort offers world-class golf, horseback riding, tennis, scenic hiking trails, canoeing and kayaking.
