

BARNESLEY RESORT ANNOUNCES NEW
Level of Play Elevated at the Award-

CHAMPION BERMUDA GREENS
Winning Golf Course

ADAIRSVILLE, GA – Already a golfer’s paradise, Barnsley Resort has upgraded its championship golf course to Champion Bermuda greens. Barnsley Resort is known for consistently seeking to raise the bar of its golf course and, with this in mind, they made the move to the new turf for the putting greens. The award-winning course chose Champion Bermuda with the objective of offering golfers a consistent putting surface year round. The new greens were installed in just six weeks, without having to reconstruct the existing surface.

“We are pleased to offer our guests and members this new and exciting golf experience. By combining this beautiful and challenging course with an improved putting surface year round we are providing our golfers the best conditioned golf course in North Georgia.” said Allen Pinson, Director of Golf.

Recently ranked #2 out of 25 Southern U.S. Golf Resorts by Condé Nast Traveler as one of the “Top 125 Golf Resorts,” Barnsley Resort offers guests stunning views of mountain peaks and emerald green fairways, reminiscent of the links in Scotland. These breathtaking vistas, strategic hazards and dramatic tee shots, make it one of the Southeast’s most sought-after golf courses. Jim Fazio designed the 378-acre course to specifically blend into the natural surroundings, dazzling golfers of every skill level with some of the fastest greens in the Southeast.

When not on the links, this serene retreat located just 60 miles north of Atlanta offers an unrivaled combination of relaxation and world-class amenities. Tennis, horseback riding, 12 miles of scenic hiking trails, lawn games, canoeing and kayaking, paintball and more await guests looking for an escape that feels more like an intimate residence than a resort. Hunting enthusiasts will enjoy Springbank Plantation, a unique preserve that features a 12-station sporting clays course, one- or two-day Caesar Guerini Wings and Clays Schools, and half and full day hunts.

After a day of golf, The Spa at Barnsley Resort nourishes and pampers with an impressive range of state-of-the-art services including massages, body wraps, and facials that blend modern and ancient techniques with the purest products for a quality spa experience. Barnsley Resort’s accommodations are housed in multi-bedroom cottages that feature living rooms and beautiful porches with spectacular views of the grounds and gardens and are the perfect place for relaxing with friends. After a day on the links, golfers can head to The Woodlands Grill, the resort’s hunting lodge inspired restaurant overlooking the golf course. For a more casual environment, the Beer Garden offers outdoor seating and a menu featuring sausages, pretzels and beer. Fire pits are located throughout the property and are the ideal gathering place for enjoying a beer while roasting marshmallows for S’mores.
